

We are old neighbors, Korea and Japan

Let's cut out a sticker and put it on.

The Japanese Invasion of Korea

There were two Japanese invasions of Joseon over a period of 7 years between 1592 and 1598. On land, Joseon royal forces, volunteer soldiers, and an army comprised of monks fought against Japan. At sea, Joseon naval forces and dispatched Ming troops fought together against Japan. The Japanese Invasion of Korea ended with the Allied force of Joseon and Ming victorious, but resulting in a lot of damage to the people of Joseon, both personally and materially.

Geobukseon
(The Turtle Ship)

Joseon's warship with a covering over the top of the Panokseon's deck.

Panokseon

The representative warship of Joseon's naval forces.

Atakebune

The representative warship of Japan's naval forces.

Sekibune

The middle-sized warship smaller than Atakebune.

Arrow

Hwando

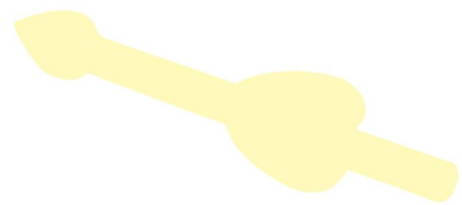

Long spear

Longbow

Japanese sword

Long spear

Daejanggunjeon

400~500m

Cannon ball
350~400m

Horn bow

Chongtong

Matchlock

We are old neighbors, Korea and Japan

The Japanese Invasion of Korea

There were two Japanese invasions of Joseon over a period of 7 years between 1592 and 1598. On land, Joseon royal forces, volunteer soldiers, and an army comprised of monks fought against Japan. At sea, Joseon naval forces and dispatched Ming troops fought together against Japan. The Japanese Invasion of Korea ended with the Allied force of Joseon and Ming victorious, but resulting in a lot of damage to the people of Joseon, both personally and materially.

Geobukseon
(The Turtle Ship)

Joseon's warship with a covering over the top of the Panokseon's deck.

Panokseon

The representative warship of Joseon's naval forces.

Atakebune

The representative warship of Japan's naval forces.

Sekibune

The middle-sized warship smaller than Atakebune.

Long spear